“A well ordered, a well-disciplined family is the greatest witness in favor of Christianity” – Ellen White

Recognizing that a Godly family is the greatest witness in favour of Christianity I hereby commit myself/family to:

1. Building and maintaining a family altar where together we will worship and seek God for daily guidance and protection;
2. Maintaining the sanctity of the family circle, where instead of highlighting the faults and failures of others, we will affirm, pray and seek appropriate help;
3. Sanctifying my tongue, ears and eyes thereby making my home a place where Christian virtues such as courtesy, contentment, cheerfulness and Christian love are continuously exhibited;
4. Fostering unity, love and peace in all my interactions with family members according to 1 Corinthians 13:4 – 8;
5. Endeavouring each day to stay close to Christ, knowing that the love of Christ holds us together – 2 Corinthians 5:14;
6. Resolving by God’s grace to grow daily, guard my spirit, meditate upon the Word and endeavour to bring it into my practical life, so that I can truly experience transformation.
